Business Financing- Revolving Loan Fund (RLF)

The San Joaquin County Economic Development Division offers technical assistance and financing support to businesses located in or expanding to San Joaquin County that create or retain jobs. Through the Revolving Loan Fund (RLF), a non-profit program designed to promote small business growth, eligible businesses can access low-interest, long-term funding to start or expand operations in the region. Apply today!

Business Retention and Expansion Specialists (BREPS)

Our BREPS are available to connect with our local businesses to understand and respond to your needs.
